F C/E Am Am/C B_b2 Gm F/A B_bM7 Csus C

1. My shep-herd is the liv - ing Lord; now shall my wants be well sup-plied.
 2. My wand'ring feet his ways mis - take, but he re - stores my soul to peace
 3. A - midst the dark-ness and the deeps thou art my com - fort, and my stay.
 4. How I re - joice when on my head thy Spir - it con - de - scends to rest.

His prov - i - dence and ho - ly word be - come my safe - ty and my guide.
 and leads me for his mer - cy's sake in the fair paths of right - eous - ness.
 Thy staff sup - ports my fee - ble steps; thy rod di - rect s my doubt - ful way.
 'Tis a di - vine an - oint - ing, shed like oil of glad - ness at a feast.

In pas - tures where sal - va - tion grows he makes me feed, he makes me rest.
 Tho' I walk through the gloom - y vale where death and all its ter - rors are,
 The sons of earth and sons of hell gaze at thy good - ness and re - pine Sure - ly the mer - cies of the Lord at - tend his house - hold all their days;

There liv - ing wa - ter gen - tly flows, and all the foods di - vine - ly blessed.
 my heart and hope shall ne - ver fail, for God my shep - herd's with me there.
 to see my ta - ble spread so well with liv - ing bread and cheer - ful wine.
 there will I dwell to hear his word, to seek his face, and sing his praise.
